

The Old Mission State Park near Cataldo, Idaho

A LIVING LANDMARK . . . The quiet hilltop setting of the Old Mission State Park captures the eye of the passing motorist on I-90 between Coeur d'Alene and Kellogg in Northern Idaho. Built by the Coeur d'Alene Indian Tribe in 1850-53, under the supervision of Father Ravalli, it remains as Idaho's oldest building. The historic park with Visitor Center, in foreground, is open year-around to visitors.

DEAR MOM &amp; DAD,

WE STOPPED HERE TO TOUR THE OLD MISSION ON OUR WAY THROUGH IDAHO THE FIRST DAY. WE STOPPED IN COEUR D'ALENE & BOZEMAN AND NOW ARE IN OUR ROOMS IN THE BEAUTIFUL YELLOWSTONE INN. WE'RE ALL HAVING A WONDERFUL TIME. NANCY & DIANE ARE AT THE GIFT SHOP AND MIKE & I ARE RELAXING IN OUR ROOM.

Love, MARY
